From "The Outgoing Pres", Don Mende

Here I am at the end of my Presidential term, done my duty, worked real hard for y'all for two years, and not one of you stinkers will step up to the plate and let me retire in peace. Come on, someone has to be the Pres. or this column will be blank. Seriously, as club members we all have to take our turn at being club officers or the club will just go away. And it's not healthy to have the same guys running everything all the time; the club needs change and new thoughts to stay interesting. Please consider taking on the challenge, I guarantee you'll enjoy it and I'll be right there to help in any way I can.

We just had our Christmas party and man was that food out of sight. Larry deal and his son cooked some awesome fish and Tom and Debbie just went all out with the decorations and ham and shrimp, Jeez it was awesome. If you missed it you missed a great time. The awards were after dinner and I was blown away by the picture and beautiful clock that the club gave me as outgoing Pres. the goodies for being Pres. are worth the effort, you need to consider it, LOL. Seriously, I can't thank y'all enough for all the support over the last couple of years and the picture and clock were just over the top, thank you all very much. A personal thank you to my fellow outgoing officers who did such a magnificent job over the last two years, Jeff and JoAnn Hopp and Keith Archambault, top drawer folks.

I wish everyone an awesome Christmas holiday and a very happy new year.

Y'all stay safe, hug your kids, and enjoy the page after page of jokes. See ya in 2007.

Social Corner

By Tom Camilliere

1. The Christmas Party was a huge success with 58 members and their families attending. As always the food was outstanding, did everyone get some shrimp???? All the cooks did a great job with the sides and dessert. The next outing lets try nametags on your dish, because many members want to know who made each dish. The gift exchange is always fun, no toilet paper this year!!!

A special thanks to Larry Deal and his son Keith for catching all the fish and then cooking it for us. They did a professional job. Many thanks from all of us.

2. We are working on the Valentine Party more info to come. It looks like it will be at Michael Deans on Falls of Neuse in Raleigh.

3. We at the Social Corner wish everyone a Merry Christmas and happy holidays be safe and may God Bless. I will see everyone at the January meeting as we start another year of great social events. They are only great because the members make them great!!!!!!!

If you have any questions please call me, 919-847-4333, or email me at camilliere@aol.com

PLEASE REMEMBER TO SIGN UP FOR THE EVENTS YOU ARE PLANNING TO ATTEND. THE SIGN-UP SHEETS WILL BE AT THE MEETINGS. THIS WORKED GREAT LAST YEAR, SO KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK AND SIGN UP.

HAPPY CRUZIN AND BE SAFE

George Carlin's NEW RULES FOR 2007

New Rule: Stop giving me that pop-up ad for classmates.com! There's a reason you don't talk to people for 25 years. Because you don't particularly like them! Besides, I already know what the captain of the football team is doing these days . . . mowing my lawn.

New Rule: Don't eat anything that's served to you out a window unless you're a seagull. People are acting all shocked that a human finger was found in a bowl of Wendy's chili. Hey, it cost less than a dollar. What did you expect it to contain? Trout?

New Rule: Stop saying that teenage boys who have sex with their hot, blonde teachers are permanently damaged. I have a better description for these kids: lucky bastards.

New Rule: If you need to shave and you still collect baseball cards, you're a dope. If you're a kid, the cards are keepsakes of your idols. If you're a grown man, they're pictures of men.

New Rule: Ladies, leave your eyebrows alone. Here's how much men care about your eyebrows: do you have two of them? Okay, we're done.

New Rule: There's no such thing as flavored water. There's a whole aisle of this crap at the supermarket, but without that watery taste. Sorry, but flavored water is called a soft drink. You want flavored water? Pour some scotch over ice and let it melt. That's your flavored water.

New Rule: Stop screwing with old people. Target is introducing a redesigned pill bottle that's square, with a bigger label. And the top is now the bottom. And by the time grandpa figures out how to open it, his ass will be in the morgue. Congratulations, Target, you just solved the Social Security crisis.

New Rule: I'm not the cashier! By the time I look up from sliding my card, entering my PIN number, pressing "Enter," verifying the amount, deciding, no, I don't want cash back, and pressing "Enter" again, the kid who is supposed to be ringing me up is standing there eating my Almond Joy.

New Rule: Just because your tattoo has Chinese characters in it doesn't make you spiritual. It's right above the crack of your ass. And it translates to "beef with broccoli." The last time you did anything spiritual, you were praying to God you weren't pregnant. You're not spiritual. You're just high.

New Rule: Competitive eating isn't a sport. It's one of the seven deadly sins. ESPN recently televised the U.S. Open of Competitive Eating, because watching those athletes at the poker table was just too damned exciting. What's next, competitive farting? Oh wait. They're already doing that. It's called "The Howard Stern Show."

New Rule: I don't need a bigger mega M&Ms If I'm extra hungry for M&Ms, I'll go nuts and eat two.

New Rule: No more gift registries. You know, it used to be just for weddings. Now it's for babies and new homes and graduations from rehab. Picking out the stuff you want and having other people buy it for you isn't gift giving, it's the white people version of looting.

New Rule: and this one is long overdue: No more bathroom attendants. After I zip up, some guy is offering me a towel and a mint like I just had sex with George Michael. I can't even tell if he's supposed to be there, or just some freak with a fetish. I don't want to be on your web cam, dude. I just want to wash my hands.

New Rule: When I ask how old your toddler is, I don't need to know in months. It's. "27 Months." "He's two," will do just fine. He's not a cheese. And I didn't really care in the first place.

New Rule: If you ever hope to be a credible adult and want a job that pays better than minimum wage, then for God's sake don't pierce or tattoo every available piece of flesh. If so, then plan your future around saying "Do you want fries with that?"

Below are some Classic Car Storage Tips I picked up from one of the Classic Car Shows on TV.

By: David Ward Jones

CLASSIC CAR STORAGE

A. EXTERIOR

1. Add Fuel Stabilizer
2. Change Oil & Filter
3. Coolant/Antifreeze and Water (50/50)
4. DOT-5 Brake Fluid (Silicone)
5. Clean Distributor Cap Points with WD-40
6. Remove Battery (Storing on Concrete does not drain Battery)

B. INTERIOR

1. Desiccant Style Moisture Absorber
2. Baking Soda: Sprinkle Baking Soda on Carpet and Vacuum
3. Place an Open Container of Moth Balls in the car to ward off insects
4. Place a Spring Scented Soap under the seat to ward off Rodents.
5. Apply Weatherstripping Conditioner
6. Close Door to First Click
7. Crack Windows
8. Lay a Sheet of Plastic under the Car front to back to prevent Moisture migration.
9. Cardboard Sheet front to back to catch any leaks.
10. Elevate car off tires and support on Jack Stands

Wisdom

A wealthy old lady decides to go on a photo safari in Africa, taking her faithful aged poodle named Cuddles, along for the company.

One day the poodle starts chasing butterflies and before long, Cuddles discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a leopard heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch.

The old poodle thinks, "Oh, oh! I'm in deep doo-doo now!" Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the leopard is about to leap the old poodle exclaims loudly, "Boy, that was one delicious leopard! I wonder if there are any more around here?"

Hearing this, the young leopard halts his attack in mid-strike, a look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees.

"Whew!", says the leopard, "That was close! That old poodle nearly had me!"

Meanwhile, a monkey who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree, figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the leopard. So off he goes, but the old poodle sees him heading after the leopard with great speed, and figures that something must be up. The monkey soon catches up with the leopard, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the leopard.

The young leopard is furious at being made a fool of and says, "Here, monkey, hop on my back and see what's going to happen to that conniving canine!"

Now, the old poodle sees the leopard coming with the monkey on his back and thinks, "What am I going to do now?", but instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the old poodle says.

"Where's that damn monkey? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another leopard!"

Moral of this story. ...

Don't mess with old farts...age and treachery will always overcome youth and skill!

Flashback

From Jeff Hopp

The debate over the appropriate uses of automobiles isn't new. In fact, what might be the most famous of all words on the subject were uttered in Congress over 130 years ago...

"A new source of power...called gasoline has been produced by a Boston engineer. Instead of burning the fuel under a boiler, it is exploded inside the cylinder of an engine. The dangers are obvious. Stores of gasoline in the hands of people interested primarily in profit would constitute a fire and explosive hazard of the first rank. Horseless carriages propelled by gasoline might attain speeds of 14 or even 20 miles per hour. The menace to our people of vehicles of this type hurtling through our streets and along our roads and poisoning the atmosphere would call for prompt legislative action even if the military and economic implications were not so overwhelming... The cost of producing gasoline is far beyond the financial capacity of private industry... In addition, the development of this new power may displace the use of horses, which would wreck our agriculture."

Christmas Divorce

A man in Phoenix calls his son in New York the day before Christmas and says, "I hate to ruin your day, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are divorcing; forty five years of misery is enough.

"Pop, what are you talking about?" the son screams. We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the father says. "We're sick of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Chicago and tell her."

Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "Like heck they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this,"

She calls Phoenix immediately, and screams at her father, "You are NOT getting divorced. Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, don't do a thing, DO YOU HEAR ME?" and hangs up.

The old man hangs up his phone and turns to his wife. "Okay," he says, "they're coming for Christmas and paying their own way."

PCCC Carshow News -December 2006

Jeff Hopp

Our carshow is several months away but the carshow committee has been working on all sorts of ideas since last July. We're looking at improving our technology and hopefully, that will result in smoother operations and execution of all aspects of our carshow. Our show is scheduled for Saturday May 19, 2007 at Lake Wheeler Park. Again, our carshow will be sponsored by Bobby Murray Chevrolet. We're planning some festivities for the 50th anniversary of the 1957 Chevrolet. We're hoping that with the multitude of 1957 Chevrolet owners in the area, that we'll have an enormous turnout at our show in May. Robert Allison has been providing some fantastic music to keep everyone entertained. Most of everything planned for our carshow will be the same as last year.

One new proposed activity is to have an auction similar to our club White Elephant sale that we had a couple of months ago. This idea was submitted by Ron Thomas. This is still in the planning stages and we'll keep you all posted on developments and plans for this activity. We hope that this will help to generate more funds that we can donate for charity. We would also like to see club members participate in tech sessions or presentations. This can be on any car related topic. Some ideas might be restoration info, painting, bodywork techniques, carshow photography, detailing the engine compartment, classic car appraisals, basic tune-ups, troubleshooting electrical problems and PCCC membership. Last year, Bob King presented a demonstration on paint touch-up and there was quite a crowd interested in his presentation.

We're asking all members to participate in selling class sponsorships. This year we have increased the number of classes. They can be viewed on the PCCC Website. It would be fantastic if you can start securing class sponsors now. They will be subject to change, so check the website frequently for the latest version. Please contact Don Mende for all details on sponsorship sales and any other advertising.

Many other aspects of our carshow are still being planned and discussed. Any ideas you might have, we would surely welcome them. Please feel free to contact me anytime.

The following is a list of the members of the carshow committee and the tasks that they will be directing:

Jeff Hopp – Carshow Director

Bill and Susan Morrison – Registration

Josh Condit – Photography

Keith Archambault – Photo Production

George Bliss – Carshow Layout and Parking

David Mallard – Judging

Don Mende – Sponsorship and Advertising Sales

Mike Prieskorn - Sponsorship Database and Display

Don Mende - 50th Anniversary Festivities for the 1957 Chevrolet

Janie Hudson, JoAnn Hopp, Lois Copeland – Carshow Food Committee

Ron Thomas – Carshow Auction
