From “Our Pres”, Don Mende

Boy, being The President of our club is always a treat, but it's something really special when you get to have your picture taken donating club funds to needy organizations. I've been involved in all of the club's 2005 charitable donations to The Red Cross, The Tammy Lynn Center, The USO, The National Kidney Foundation, and The Jessica Ferrara Fund. I have to admit that I choked back a tear or two at The Tammy Lynn Center for Children with Developmental Disabilities, these little guys and gals are extra special. The care they receive at The Tammy Lynn Center is beyond belief, awesome, awesome folks. We're also helping our troops and their families as they pass thru our airport on their way home or to their next assignment. Possibly someone will live again tonight because we donated funds to help with organ transplant research. My brother is a recent recipient of a liver transplant that would have never been possible without donations like ours.

As we work in the hot sun next year at our car show think about the people we're going to help with the money we're raising. It won't make it any cooler, but it sure will make it worthwhile. So far this year we've donated $3,750.00 to charity and we've committed another $500 to The Boys & Girls Club. That is one heck of a job and you should all pat yourselves on the back and feel really good about the work we've done and the lives we've touched. I can't help but think we've made a difference.

Well our mentoring program is in high gear. The club has three new members this month and their mentors are hopefully working hard to acclimate them into our club. I look forward to a report on how the new mentoring program worked.

The club is in two parades this year, The Raleigh Veterans Parade November 11th and The Raleigh Christmas Parade November 19th. I've sent out emails to everyone asking them to let me know if they want to drive in a parade. If you didn't get my email then call me and let me know that you want to participate so I can add you to the list.

I'll see ya'll at the lasagna dinner and you better dress up in your 50's garb because my wife is making me dress up and I don't want to be the only one looking like a dweeb, remember that word, LOL.

Ya'll hug your kids and stay safe,

“The Social Corner”

By: Tom Camilliere

1. October, 29th, Lasagna Party, Silent auction, 50's dress-up (if you want) dance Party. As you can see this is three parties in one, it should be great fun. Remember to bring a GOOD item for the auction, your drink and a dessert or a side that goes with lasagna. Party Place is the Fairview Center on 1010 road. Time :6:00pm, eat at 6:30pm. This is a free party, your social funds at work again, so come and have some great lasagna. So far we have 45 people signed up, if you have not, sign up at the meeting or call me to let me know. Thanks, for your help and see everyone at the Fairview Center.
2. December 3, Christmas Party at Carvers Creek. Our party will be in the room at the back so we will all be on the same level this year. We will have appetizers paid from the social fund. The cost will be around 32 dollars (tip included) per person for your entree. The party will be earlier this year than last year. The exact time will be in the November newsletter. Remember to bring a present for the Christmas grab bag. Please sign up at this time.

THINK LASAGNA AND SEE EVERYONE ON OCTOBER 29th !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Be safe and Happy Cruzin

THOUGHTS ???

1. Jim Baker and Jimmy Swaggert have written an impressive new book. It's called "Ministers Do More Than Lay People."
2. Transvestite: A guy who likes to eat, drink and be Mary.
3. The difference between the Pope and your boss...the Pope only expects you to kiss his ring.
4. My mind works like lightning. One brilliant flash and it is gone.
5. The only time the world beats a path to your door is if you're in the bathroom.
6. I hate sex in the movies. Tried it once. The seat folded up, the drink spilled and that ice, well, it really chilled the mood.
7. It used to be only death and taxes were inevitable. Now, of course, there's shipping and handling, too.
8. A husband is someone who, after taking the trash out, gives the impression that he just cleaned the whole house.
9. My next house will have no kitchen - just vending machines and a large trash can.
10. A blonde said, "I was worried that my mechanic might try to rip me off. I was relieved when he told me all I needed was turn signal fluid."
11. I'm so depressed. My doctor refused to write me a prescription for Viagra. He said it would be like putting a new flagpole on a condemned building.
12. My neighbor was bit by a stray rabid dog. I went to see how he was and found him writing frantically on a piece of paper. I told him rabies could be cured and he didn't have to worry about a Will. He said, "Will? What Will? I'm making a list of the people I want to bite."
- 13 Definition of a teenager? God's punishment for enjoying sex.
14. As we slide down the banister of life, may the splinters never point the wrong way.

REMEMBER, GROWING OLDER IS MANDATORY. GROWING UP IS OPTIONAL.

Hello you gear heads,

The weather is cooling off so that means it's Auto Fest time once again, November 11th thru the 13th. For our new members, our club has reserved car space at the Auto Fest every year. We put on a display of three cars and take turns working the booth. This year we will have on display Bob King's 64 Vette, Billy Jone's 58 Chevy, and John Cooper's 68 Impala. A fantastic mix of vehicles and a big thank you to those three guys for volunteering the use of their rides for three days.

If you work the booth you get free entry to the Auto Fest all weekend. This is a nice benefit as each day the Auto Fest show cars change outside, so you get to see not only the classics but some pretty neat low riders and others. It's always interesting to see the other side of our hobby.

The Auto Fest has historically been one of our better venues for introducing our club to prospective new members. We'll have new membership sign-up forms, club pictures, and lots of other stuff on display to help "sell" our club. The shifts for working the booth are in 3 hour increments over the 3 days of the show. If you would please email or call me with your preference for the shift you want to work I'll try to fit everybody in.

This is a real fun event; you'll meet all kinds of people and hear more stories than you ever thought possible. Just listening to Mr. Beach is worth the effort of working the booth for 3 hours, the mans a walking library.

Sign up below and email or call me back your preference, have a great day, Don Mende
